HELLO CYRUS

CYRUS AUSAR

is an author and speaker who helps people recognize the Invisible Patterns influencing how they think, make decisions, and shape their future.

Through keynote speaking, leadership training, and staff workshops, Cyrus helps organizations strengthen self-awareness, improve decision-making, and better understand the patterns affecting their people and performance.

His practical, relatable approach is built on more than 25 years of experience working with individuals, leaders, schools, and organizations across the country.
